Occasional Teachers Invited to Apply to be Workshop Presenters

Occasional teachers are invited to apply to be presenters for OECTA's Summer Institute and PD Network.

Successful occasional teacher applicants will be trained to present Occasional Teachers (OT) workshops in the Summer Institute and will be added to OECTA's PD Network.

Summer Institutes are held in July and August 2009 when requested by local OT presidents.

The PD Network workshops are held during the school year 2009-2010, beginning in September when requested by local OT presidents.

Each presenter will be expected to present at least one Summer Institute and one PD

Network Workshop. Expenses and release time are reimbursed. Participants must be available for a training day on June 9, 2009.

Applications must be received by April 15, 2009.

To apply:

Provide your resume as well as a letter explaining why you are suitable for this position, including the names of two OECTA member references, to Lyn Vause.
